

I do not want the government getting involved with what I hear on XM. I pay for this service and it should be the people's choice. When I need traffic and weather I can't want for when the local Chicago stations might have it on the radio. When I need traffic information I need it now. XM was smart to fill this need and it should be allowed to do so.

Thanks,

Luke Szulczewski